Easter Eggstravaganza bounces into Wasaga Beach

Wasaga Beach – Family fun is the focus of Easter Eggstravaganza on Saturday, April 20.

“We have another exciting day planned for our community,” Mayor Nina Bifulchi said. “On behalf of all council members, I encourage everyone in Wasaga Beach to join us for this springtime tradition.”

The 10th annual Easter festival runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the RecPlex, 1724 Mosley St.

Activities will take place inside and outside.

Once again the Easter Bunny will be part of the fun. As well, there will be an egg hunt starting at 10:30 a.m. with treats and prizes for kids.

Other activities during the day include face painting, bouncy castles, games, balloon twisting, wagon rides, a petting zoo, dancing, a rock wall, arts and crafts, vendors, the Wasaga Beach Grill Team and more.

Donations to the Wasaga Beach Ministerial Food Bank will be accepted during the festival.
