Wasaga Beach – George Vadeboncoeur is the Town of Wasaga Beach’s new chief administrative officer.

“We are pleased to have George once again be a part of our team,” Mayor Nina Bifulchi said. “George is an experienced public servant that understands the needs of our municipality and community. He will provide important leadership at the staff level, as well as support to the newly elected council.”

Vadeboncoeur said he is delighted to be returning to the Town of Wasaga Beach.

“Together we had accomplished so much as an organization and I look forward to the exciting task ahead,” Vadeboncoeur said. “I am particularly pleased about being able to work with the dedicated staff at the Town of Wasaga Beach.”

Vadeboncoeur has an extensive municipal background. He served as CAO for the Town of Penetanguishene for 10 years prior to joining the Town of Wasaga Beach 13 years ago.

“Council is confident in George’s abilities to lead staff and ensure that council’s objectives are achieved,” Mayor Bifulchi said. “On behalf of council, I am happy to welcome him back to Wasaga Beach.”
