Mayor's Message

Welcome to 2021.

I hope the recent Christmas break allowed you a chance to relax and recharge.

A new year stretches out before us. This is shaping up to be an exciting 12 months, a period for optimism and revitalization after so much pandemic-related uncertainty.

Public health officials started the vaccine rollout just before the Christmas break and its distribution continues.

However, it is important we remain vigilant. Wash your hands regularly. Wear your mask. Limit your travel. Now is not the time to let your guard down.

The year 2021 also marks the start of construction for the new twin-pad arena and library. Construction will begin this summer. Drive by our site at 544 River Rd. W. and you will notice our new sign is already up. Keep an eye on this location when building begins. Watch as our new east-end landmark takes shape. It is interesting, and a bit heartwarming, to think about the memories people will make here in the years to come. Generations will learn to skate, discover a love for books, access their first musical show, explore new programs, and make new friendships.

This year we are also poised to move ahead with plans for the redevelopment of town-owned land at the beachfront. Earlier in the term, we shortlisted developers and late last year we asked them to put forward their specific ideas. Developers are required to submit their proposals by February 2021. An evaluation team will then review and score the submissions. Council will also review and grade the proposals. We anticipate the selection of preferred developers in April 2021 and the approval of developers and their specific projects in July 2021.

Developers active in our community remain upbeat about the year ahead. Our planning staff continue to process development applications and our building staff are as busy as ever. More information will be available as these projects come before council.

In December, we approved our budget for this year. Along with funds for our library and arena project, the budget includes investments in other important areas: roads and bridges, public transit, physician recruitment, storm drainage, our fire department, and much more.

As I noted in my budget address in December, we are making several meaningful investments that allow us to build a more complete community and ultimately move Wasaga Beach forward.

In all that we have done and continue to do, we are taking steps to make our town the best it can be – for today, tomorrow, and the years ahead.

Council approves 2021 budget, significant investments for year ahead

Members of Wasaga Beach Town Council approved the 2021 budget on Dec. 22, charting an ambitious and progressive course that will result in improved services, programs, and amenities for the community.

“We strived to find the balance between addressing the impacts of COVID-19 on taxpayers, while planning for the future. This budget contains several meaningful investments that allow us to build a more complete community and ultimately move Wasaga Beach forward,”

Mayor Nina Bifulchi said.

“COVID-19 has been hard on everyone, but we want to be strong coming out of the pandemic when the economy starts to rebound. I want to thank our staff and members of council for all of the hard work that went into creating this detailed financial plan.”

The budget contains a 2.99 percent increase to municipal taxes, which works out to a total 1.70 percent increase when the county and school board rates are considered.

In 2021, for the average house assessed at $330,000, property taxes will increase by $55.31 for the year or an extra $4.60 per month. For a home assessed at $450,000, the increase will be $6.29 per month.

Taxes, plus other rates and fees the town collects, support the delivery of important municipal services and capital projects that touch the everyday lives of local residents.

The town’s operating budget sits at $42-million and the capital budget is $54-million.

The budget includes significant investments in the following areas:

- New twin-pad arena and library;
- Road and bridge improvements;
- Water and wastewater infrastructure;
- Drainage improvements
- Public transit;
- Physician recruitment;
- Fire Department;
- Refurbished trail bridges and parks;
- Planning studies that support community development.

A key part of the capital budget is funding for the twin-pad arena and library project. This project will start construction in 2021 after several years of planning and setting aside funds. Situated at 544 River Rd. W., the new complex will replace the town’s current and aging inadequate facilities. This is positive news for our minor hockey association, our adult hockey leagues, our figure skating club, active community members, as well as the many people and groups that use our library.

The new twin-pad arena and library will also provide space for special events, such as concerts, new programming, and additional indoor activities. Included with the project is an indoor walking track.

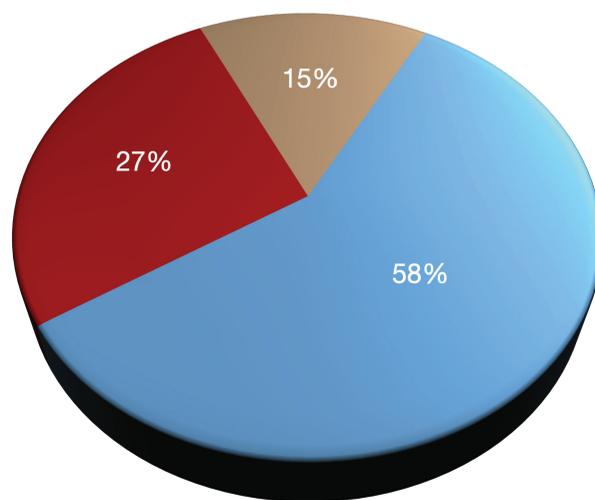

Wasaga Beach remains one of the most affordable places to live in Simcoe County, while offering residents a safe and quality lifestyle. The town’s tax rate is at the low end for its comparators.

The town’s treasury staff are projecting modest tax rate increases in the years ahead to support service delivery and infrastructure development. In 2022, we are looking at a 2.2 percent tax rate increase, the 2023 rate will increase by 2.51 percent, the 2024 rate is 2.30 percent higher, and the 2025 rate is 2.04 percent more than the year before. These projected tax rate increases are based on conservative estimates and include carrying costs for the new twin-pad arena and library and numerous other capital projects that are detailed in the Capital Forecasts.

Year in Review now online

Our 2020 Year in Review is now available on our website. The six-page publication provides a comprehensive overview of the many projects worked on in the past year.

Included is a look at the following departments:

- Administration;
- Clerk's Department;
- Recreation, Events and Facilities Department;
- Fire Department;
- Library;
- Building and Development Services;
- Treasury and Information Technology;
- Public Works;
- Planning and Economic Initiatives.

A message from Mayor Bifolchi is also included with the review.

In addition, several of our favourite photographs from the year make up this special look at the last 12 months.

Despite the challenges of the pandemic, staff remained committed to delivering high quality public services to support the people living in our community and to help move Wasaga Beach forward.

As you will read in the review, our efforts included the delivery of special events, physician recruitment, programs for local youth, and significant infrastructure investments, including the Main Street Bridge Rehabilitation Project, as well as the Veterans Way/Klondike Park Road Geometrics and Water Main Upgrades.

Our Information Technology team, in partnership with other departments, launched a new town website, providing easier use and a fresh, clean new look.

Treasury staff had a busy year, too. They secured $2.2-million in grant funding for the town, completed the Development Charges Background Study, and established a financial plan for the Twin-Pad Arena and Library Project.

Planning for the library and arena project now has reached the point where we can move into the construction phase later this year.

Commercial and residential development continued last year with 320 new residential units approved through Plan of Subdivision. Planning staff are reviewing applications for another 360 residential units.

Our Building and Development Services Department issued permits for $81-million worth of residential construction and $6.2-million worth of commercial construction.
